Grangers Vs. Warehousemen.

All of Their Tobacco to Go to the Louisville Market.

There are two flourishing Granges in Christian county, one located at Church Hill and the other at Casky. The two number about two hundred The largest line of holiday goods of the most prominent and substantial farmers of the county.

For the last five years it has been the custom of the Grangers to arrange to consign their tobacco all together to one warehouse, and the warehousemen have given them a rebate. This arrangement was made Grove Baptist church closed the first by letting the contract to the lowest bidder, and, as the Grangers' tobacco ranged all the way from 500 to 1,000 logsheads a year, it was a big thing. Messrs, Buckner & Wooldridge secured the contract for three years, and Messrs. Gant & Sons had it for 1881 and 1882. The bidding, of course, became more animated from year to year, and in 1882 the Messrs. sold out their bar at the Phonix Ho- Gant obligated themselves to give a rebate of $1.65 from the regular rate of $2.50 per hogshead.
